

This course is designed to meet the needs of the advanced student welder working towards welding certification requirements. This course will involve many advanced skills and techniques used in stick, mig,

