

CONFLICT OF INTEREST QUESTIONNAIRE

FORM CIO-1

This questionnaire is required by Section 177 of the California Constitution and the personnel rules of the State of California. It is to be completed by a person who has a business, financial, or other interest that may conflict with the performance of his or her duties as a public official.

1. Are you a member of any political party or organization? If so, name the party or organization.

2. Do you have any business, financial, or other interest that may conflict with the performance of your duties as a public official?

3. If you have any business, financial, or other interest that may conflict with the performance of your duties as a public official, describe the interest and its nature.

4. Do you have any other interest that may conflict with the performance of your duties as a public official? If so, describe the interest and its nature.

5. Do you have any other interest that may conflict with the performance of your duties as a public official? If so, describe the interest and its nature.

6. Do you have any other interest that may conflict with the performance of your duties as a public official? If so, describe the interest and its nature.

7. Do you have any other interest that may conflict with the performance of your duties as a public official? If so, describe the interest and its nature.

8. Do you have any other interest that may conflict with the performance of your duties as a public official? If so, describe the interest and its nature.